Paranormal Soundscapes pt. 1

-by B Edwards

No.....this isn't normal though normal
for around here maybe
anymore

I hear them
the voices jumping out of the everyday sounds of the world

within the sound of the rushing wind
I could hear
an entire legion of these voices

through the sound
of the running water in the shower
I could hear
a dozen or more
spectral intruders

through the sound
of the heating system
in this apartment
I could hear
one of the ringleaders

from the sky
a voice speaks
emitting a psychic shockwave I can feel the ground shake beneath my feet
mental turbulence
paranormal psychosis
a soundscape of audio upheaval
